CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AKIL KURESHI

Date of decision: 15/10/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

In this petition, the petitioner has challenged the award of the Labour Court, directing reinstatement of the respondent workman with 40% backwages. Counsel for the petitioner states that the respondent has already been reinstated in service and paid backwages of Rs. 25,000/-, which the respondent has also withdrawn. According to him therefore, the entire award is implemented and nothing further is required to be done.

The Counsel for the respondent is not in a position to state with any certainty whether the award is fully satisfied or not, since according to the Counsel for the respondent, the workman has not responded to his communication. Since the respondent is already reinstated in service and paid the backwages as stated by Mr. D.C. Chauhan for the petitioner, it is possible that the workman may not be interested to pursue the matter. In this view of the matter, nothing further is required to be done and the petition is therefore, disposed of with liberty to apply to either side in case of difficulty.

Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
